

Terms and Conditions of Abstract Submission and Publication to SRHSB Annual Meetings

NOTE: This is the preferred form and format the Committee Executive will consider when selecting the papers and posters for the next meeting. If your paper or poster is not in the correct format according to the instructions below, it will not be accepted in the submission process.

Please use only Arial 11 point font, and note that you cannot use any special characters ( $\mu$   $\alpha$   $\beta$   $\leq$   $\pm$   $\textcircled{C}$ ) including angle brackets and effects (bold, underline, subscripts, superscripts) or even charts /graphs on the form. Standard scientific character notation such as  $\pm$ ,  $^\circ$ ,  $\leq$ ,  $\geq$ ,  $\div$  etc are allowed in the text. Spell out micro ( $\mu$ ), alpha ( $\alpha$ ), beta ( $\beta$ ) etc. Use "E" instead of the superscript (eg 10E3).

Instructions to Authors:

Abstracts sent by email will not be accepted, so please read the instructions carefully! Complete one copy of this form for each abstract submission. To aid administration, we ask that you submit this form electronically through the SRHSB website.

You can use up to 2000 characters including references in the headings provided (Background, Materials and Methods, Results, Conclusions). Before you submit the form electronically, we request you draft the text in a WORD document; this way you can confirm that you have not exceeded a total of 2000 characters. Then copy and paste each section into the relevant boxes below without the subheading, or submit as an attachment. Your abstract, if accepted, will appear in the programme as it appears here, so please ensure accuracy and good English grammar. However by submitting your abstract you agree to changes in grammar and spelling by the Executive Committee if required.

Title of abstract: (Please use lower case)

Authors: List each author by the first name followed by the surname; separate authors by a comma. Indicate the presenting author with an asterisk (*) following the name. If the address is different for each author, please use numbers enclosed with brackets [ ].

Mailing address of authors: Give addresses for all authors (Department, Institute, City, Code, Country) using numbers as above. Remember to give phone/fax number and e-mail address of presenting author.

Conflict of Interest: The authors have a responsibility to disclose at the time of submission of abstracts any conflict of interest that may influence or be seen to influence any aspect of the research. This responsibility extends to matters related to financial benefit in the form of remuneration, payment or gift received by a staff member that is in addition to salary paid by the University. Financial benefits might also include ownership of any products, consultancy fees, or royalties. Payment received as a grant proposal reviewer are not considered a conflict of interest. Failure to disclose any conflict of interest will result in rejection of the abstract.

Please declare any conflict of interest on the footer of the abstract form; if you have nothing to declare please write "no conflict of interest to declare". Submissions with no declaration will not be considered.

If you wish to acknowledge anyone/funding agencies, please do so on the footer of the page; this will not count toward the 2000 character limit.

Please make sure you have filled in all the boxes correctly, and have not exceeded 2000 characters, otherwise the form will be truncated at 2000 characters for review and publication.

In submitting this abstract, you commit yourself, or a colleague to present the Paper/Poster if accepted.

Receipts: Questions or problems regarding abstract submission should be emailed to the Webmaster: webmastersrhsb@gmail.com

Copyright Agreement:

The author is fully responsible for the content, data and pictorial material used for the abstract and presentation or poster. International Copyright laws must be obeyed and the copyright holder must be named.

The Executive Committee members of the SRHSB